ABOUT
ALL AMERICAN
MONITORING

YOUR PREMIER CENTRAL MONITORING STATION SPECIALIST

Missed break-ins. Poor response times. Customer service complaints. These are every alarm monitoring company's worst fears. After all, they can put you out of business.

With All American Monitoring, you can finally put your fears at ease. Family owned since 1973, we have been both an alarm monitoring and alarm installation company for 38 years. We know the alarm business well, and the work it takes to build your business. It's our job to protect your assets, a responsibility we take very seriously. We offer security and fire alarm monitoring at very competitive prices to 1500 dealers across the United States.

"With All American Monitoring we can rest assured that each call is handled in a timely and courteous manner. We have enjoyed your excellent service for 11 years (wow!) and we look forward to many more years of a thriving and successful business relationship."

—Michele Feldman, Cal-Staic Security Systems

PARTNER WITH ALL AMERICAN
MONITORING
AN ALARM MONITORING PARTNER YOU CAN COUNT ON

success of your business. That's why we take great care to protect your brand just as effectively as we protect your customers.

Working for you, a trained CSAA Certified alarm monitoring operator promptly answers your incoming calls with the greeting "Central Station" and their name. Outgoing calls to customers and authorities are made using your company's name. And all calls are recorded to assure quality and consistency. You are the Central Station.

All American Monitoring is also a trusted partner because we provide the industry's best alarm monitoring services to dealers of all sizes and have done so for many years.

ALL AMERICAN MONITORING YOUR ALARM MONITORING SPECIALIST

As a dealer, you know the alarm monitoring business is a serious industry. The safety and well-being of your customers, their families and employees, and the protection of their treasured possessions are at stake. They have contracted you for assurance, peace of mind, dependable alarm monitoring services and—if the unavoidable should happen—outstanding response times. Now, there's someone you can contract for the same things. 1500 Alarm Dealers across the United States trust their alarm monitoring to All American Monitoring and we don't disappoint them.
